Thomas Merton once said, "Each one of us has some kind of vocation. We are all called by God to share in His life and His kingdom. Each one of us is called to a special place in the kingdom. If we find that place we will be happy. If we do not find it, we can never be completely happy. For each one of us, there is only one thing necessary; to fulfill our own destiny, according to God's will, to be what God wants us to be." Saint Joseph's College is fortunate enough to have God choose that this should be the place for Father Richard Ferris' Kingdom to exist.

The Class of 1986 dedicates "Footprints" to a priest, teacher and friend. He has been a teacher of Theology here at St. Joe's 21 years. Father Ferris has taught many in the classroom, but what we have learned from this special priest goes beyond the academic aspects. This teacher has taught us through his many hours of listening to his students hopes and fears, that there are people in this life who genuinely care for others. He has taught love, respect and kindness. The doorbell at 256 is never out of order. This friend is always available to listen, advise or to watch a ball game.

When one thinks of this man — Father Ferris — one automatically sees a smiling face. This priest has shown us through his happiness, sense of humor and great love of life, that he is truly dedicated to our Lord, Jesus Christ. This unique individual has been a great asset to our college life.

Thank you Father Ferris for being the dedicated priest, teacher and friend that you are.

*My friend,
if I could give you one thing,
I would give you the ability to see yourself as others see you . . .
Then you would realize what a truly special person you are.*

OUR GROUP

*Our group is not the plain variety —
 It's a little-bit-insane society.
 It has its scholars, kooks and clowns,
 It's schizophrenic ups and downs,
 Its days of work and righteous piety,
 Its days of total insobriety.*

*It has its weirdos and its straights,
Its swinging singles and their dates,
Its loyal marrieds so devoted,
Its members skinny — others bloated,
It has its geniuses and bores,
Its petty fights and civil wars,
Its days of buoyant jubilation,
Its moments of acute frustration.*

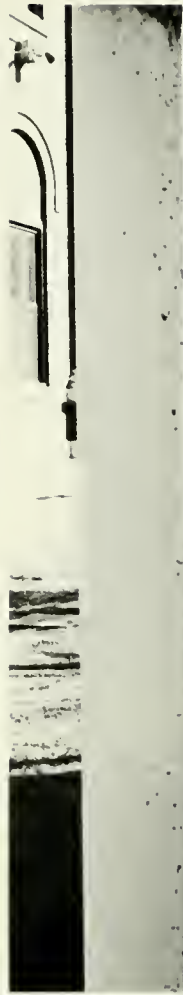

*It has its faces bright and sunny
and others who complain of money.
It has its listeners and its talkers,
Its activists, its chronic balkers,
Its fitness freaks and sugar junkies,
Workaholics, mental flunkies.*

*It has its drinkers with their booze,
Its Pollyannas with good news,
Its leaders with their organizing,
Its followers all eulogizing,
Its nonconformists, nonconforming,
Its rumor mongers misinforming.*

*Its malcontents with all their raving,
Its married members misbehaving,
Its moments crude and moments formal,
Its members who are oddly normal.*

*We are a group and none should doubt it,
Since where would we all be without it!!*

OUR GROUP

Our group is not the plain variety —
It's a little-bit-insane society.
It has its scholars, monks and clowns,
It's schizophrenic ups and downs,
Its days of work and righteous piety,
Its days of total insobriety.
It has its weirdos and its straights,
Its swinging singles and their dates,
Its loyal marrieds so devoted,
Its members skinny — others blouted.
It has its geniuses and bores,
Its petty tiffs and civil wars,
Its days of buoyant jubilation,
Its moments of acute frustration.
It has its faces bright and sunny
and others who complain of money.
It has its listeners and its talkers,
Its activists, its chronic balkers,
Its fitness freaks and sugar junkies,
Workaholics, mental flunkies.
It has its drinkers with their booze,
Its Pollyannas with good news,
Its leaders with their organizing,
Its followers all eulogizing,
Its nonconformists, nonconforming,
Its rumor mongers misinforming.
Its malcontents with all their raving,
Its married members misbehaving,
Its moments crude and moments formal,
Its members who are oddly normal.
We are a group and none should doubt it,
Since where would we all be without it!

Aim For A Star

*Aim for a star! Never be satisfied
With a life that is less than the best,
Failure lies only in not having tried —
In keeping the soul suppressed.*

*Aim for a star! Look up and away,
And follow its beckoning beam.
Make each Tomorrow a better Today —
And don't be afraid to dream.*

*Aim for a star,
and keep your sights high!
With a heartful of faith within,
Your feet on the ground,
and your eyes on the sky,
Someday you are bound to win!*

You are always my friend when I am happy or when I am sad

When I am all alone or when I am with people

You are always my friend if I see you today or if I see you a year from now

If I talk to you today or if I talk to you a year from now

You are always my friend and through the years we will change

It doesn't matter what I do or it doesn't matter what you do

Throughout our lifetime you are always my friend.

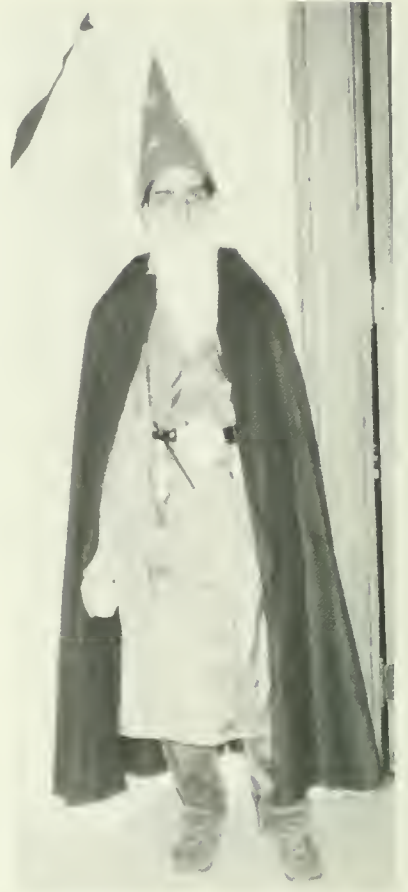

*“And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time
Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o’er life’s solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother.
Seeing, shall take heart again.”*
